SDK-N

e-Control® SDK for Microsoft® .NET Component

Crestron e-Control® SDKs (Software Development Kits) provide a world of possibilities for GUI design and control. The e-Control SDK for Microsoft® .NET Component equips developers using Microsoft Visual Studio with the tools needed to create powerful dynamic interfaces and other .NET projects capable of bidirectional communications between a computer running the .NET framework and a Crestron control system.